. . . any man's death
diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind;
and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee.

John Donne

The world is a prison, confining life, but for those who are non-conformists
the bars are wide enough to slip through.

but do not come too near leave me room for love
to laugh at its happiness and always let some

CROSS COUNTRY

AT THE START . . . SENSING VICTORY

SUBURBAN LEAGUE CHAMPS

DURING . . . IN THE LEAD

AFTER . . . WINNERS ONCE AGAIN

THE TEAM

Cross Country's success cannot be attributed to a single factor, rather, it was the culmination of efforts over the past few years; the inspiration of previous members, particularly last year's captains, Dave Stokle and Jon Sheldon, the dedication and resolve of the team as they practiced long before the season began, and the coaching of Mr. Laakso all figured greatly in the capture of their first Suburban League title.

A 6-0 record does not accurately depict the course of Cross Country's campaign. With the toughest schedule in the League, Brookline would face perennial champions Brockton and Cambridge in the first two meets. These meets were indeed the entire season. Although taking first place, Brockton was stunned by the on-slaught of Brookline runners. Against Cambridge, victory was secured only in the last 600 yards of the 2.5 mile course where Brookline's Dave Gordon, Warren Stotsky, and Shun Yee surged by Cambridge's fourth man. Once these meets had been won, other teams fell easily.

The loss of Suburban League All Star Bill Stewart, co-captain, Warren Stotsky, and Shun Yee will be heartfelt, but as demonstrated in the toughest meets, Brookline's strength lies in its consolidated corps. The return of All Stars Ben Chertok and co-captain Dave Counts, along with the wave of sophomore runners which crashed upon the aspirations of Brockton and Cambridge, will insure success for years to come. It is evident that a cross-country dynasty has been established and "wave" sophomores, Ben Chertok, Dave Gordon, Jun Whang, Stefan Counts, John Flatly, and Rand Day have vowed to perpetuate it.

FIELD HOCKEY 1982

Our 2-7-7 record does not exemplify the spirit and dedication of the team. Perhaps we could have made it to the States:

If the Field, League, Coach and System hadn't been so New
If the New Nets didn't break the first day we used them
If LAUREEN hadn't been injured
If JENNIFER was nice to the refs in every game
If DEANNE had informed the other team at every game that it was impossible to get the ball past her
If HEIDI'S treasure chest was filled with more than just gold
If CATHY'S T-shirts were smaller
If BERENICKI wasn't always so loud
If AMY had a direct phone line to "MOMMY"
If NANCY wasn't so bored in the wings
If INGER'S GOSSIP COLUMN was published in the SAGAMORE
If LARA ate M&M's before every game
If NATASHIA had another pair of B.C. SWEATS
If JULIE had moved up earlier
IF JACKIE, TUULI AND GAIL weren't the only seniors
IF NORMA NEUROTIC and SALLY STRAIGHT-LACE had come to every practice
If the other teams weren't so U-G-L-Y
If we all wore MINIS to the METRO
If our cheers weren't so degrading
And if we had more cookouts and parties instead of practice

Thanks for a great season.
Jackie, Tuuli and Gail

SOCCER 1982

Soccer '82 was a year of transition. It included a new coach who forced us to learn Hungarian, however, we were unable to fully understand his Hungarian logic until the last four games of the season.

Although the team was made up of mostly seniors, the experience level was relatively low, returning were four starters from the previous year. This inexperience was reflected in the teams inconsistent start. As the season progressed the team became more unified, this was apparent both on and off the field. In the last four games we showed our true potential allowing only one goal while scoring seven and pummeling the state finalists Cambridge R&L 3-0. Off the field, we initially had problems establishing our well-known domain in the corner of the cafeteria known as the "Soccer Table". By mid-season the customary banner was once again raised to announce that Soccer '82 was here to stay. This helped to relieve the daily task of booting freshmen from that area.

Brookline soccer has established many traditions in the past and these were carried out with much enthusiasm this season. During our traditional varsity initiation ceremonies, we heard some superb vocal performances. One of the most memorable was that of junior Ramin Royai's solo of "Ebony and Ivory" where he suffered many welts by order of the judging committee, who consisted of Tri-Captains Chris, Victor, and James. Other superb performances were given by R&B specialist Thurman Mattiesen, Irish wonder John Lockwood, and Gary Woolf who improvised what seemed to be a derivative of the Talking Heads.

Another well-known tradition were the young men from Manchester, England known as "The Original Mirrors", little needs to be said about this group other than they are unheard of. It was mandatory that the words of our theme song "Boys Cry" were known by each varsity member, "Fugly Jr. D'Angelo" and "Jeff Lowenbrau" could be called for tootering if necessary.

Every player contributed to the team in their own way. That Turkish Wonder Sonny Akdag utiliized his philosophy of soccer-dribble! to help our offense. Helping him were Bart Carothers who specialized in corner kicks, Jan Larsen and Ramin Roayai. Leading offense was Captain "Vinny" Livingstone, the team's leading scorer and master of the flip throw-in. Brookline's killer squad which was so effective consisted of: senior Monty Wilson — "The Blonde Wonder", senior Gary Woolfman, junior Chris "Macca" McMarthy, Sambo "Thunder thighs", Mr. "T" David Sapers and Don Klein. Captains Chris "flash" Cardona and James "shifty" Friedman controlled midfield along with junior captain-elect Chris Yoda. Brookline's "D" was lead by seniors Pete D'Angelo and Jeff Lowenstein along with support from Seth Shulman and Eric Nichols. John Lockwood came in frequently to utilize his knowledge of rugby to change the pace of the game. Brookline's goal was ably tended by talented captain-elect Tom Foley "The Goalie", and Thurman Mattiesen who did a great job in the last two games of the season.

During the course of the season Soccer '82 became a "close-net" team. The wide array of athletes learned to both play and party together. In two words this team can be described as "The sllab!"

GIRLS' SOCCER 1982

If only Nique had gotten a little dirty, and if Walshie had only stayed on her feet, and if Kathy had bought contact lenses, and if only Sara D. had taken an assertive training course, and if only Kerry could have learned to play soccer with her crutches, and if only Sally had some meat on her, and if only Hanya had slowed down enough to find out who we were playing, and if Chris had worn a hairpiece, and if Lana were only more perfect and if Beth had only learned how to do other traps besides chest traps, and if Kristen had learned that two heads aren't better than one, and if Sara W. could have learned to keep her shorts up, and if Siobhan had kept her hands to herself, and if Phyllis had been with us from the beginning, and if Lisa had listened to her father, and if only Danny had taken all of us to the concert, and if only Krista had come back to earth, and if only Jack had a half decent gym class to coach, and finally if Stephi had prepared for a loss instead of a flood, we might have made it to the State Tournament.

Thanks, everyone, for the best season ever —

VOLLEYBALL

People may laugh at our record, but still we did our best to try to win;
JANET got contact lenses.
SUSIE made an emergency shopping trip to Woolworths.
RUTH changed her dunks to dinks.
DAFNA taught us her Israeli back rolls.
STELLA became our designated setter.
MICAELA learned to love funky music.
ROBIN scored a bucket at Brockton.
GAIL tried to sneak under the net and join the opposing team.
WE cut and permed our hair.
WE even expanded our vocabulary with words to kill.
Finally we won enough points so Coach Lewis stopped calling the score LOVE-15.
Even that Wednesday x-Block meeting couldn't tear this invincible team apart. Afterall, winning isn't everything.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL 1982-83

The season has been great. After being the undefeated champs of the Milton Summer League, we were able to carry our hard work and determination into the season. For the first time, the girls' team had a winning season and a qualifying record for the State Tournament. Sure we had our problems like:

Ruthie's big feet tripping everyone,
Hanya running down the court without the team,
Walshie not yelling "ball" loud enough,
Chris' ears causing three second violations in the key,
Nique not getting dressed in time for practice,
Kerry being too short for a forward,
Sara being afraid she'd hurt someone,
Lana not being able to stand on her own feet,
And . . . wondering if Tamera would make the game on time.

Nevertheless, we had a wonderful time and have learned a lot from each other. Good luck next year!

SUBURBAN LEAGUE CHAMPS

BOYS' BASKETBALL 1982-83

This year's team (11-1 in the Suburban League and 16-2 overall) surpassed the record of last year's team (15-4) on our way to bringing the Suburban League title to Brookline for the second year in a row. Senior co-captain Fred Hill, led the way with a 25-point per game average. Co-captain and starting center John "Moose-Pinone" Tzimorangas added 14 points per game, tough rebounding, and good defense to the starting line-up. Among the other starters were senior forward Thurman Matthiesen, senior guard-forward Joe "Truck" Lemar, and senior guard Scott Huggins.

Thurman was our best rebounder and one of our better defensive players. He controlled the boards in big games and scored some crucial buckets. Joe was our second outside threat with a radar jump shot. Scott ran the offense, and with his ball handling ability and experience, dribbled us out of some tight situations.

The starting five was the nucleus of the team, however there were eight other very good players on the squad. They worked the starters hard in practice and did their jobs when called upon to give a starter a breather. The rest of the team consisted of seniors Tony Corbin, Norman Anderson, Panayotis Skordos, Alan Johnson, David Daniels, Jack Cazeau, Bruce Brown, and sophomore center Korey Mickey.

As we head for the states, we would like to thank the great coaching staff. Without the aid and guidance of coaches John Howard, Lance Tucker, and head coach Bernard Johnson (our choice for coach of the year), we doubt that we would have made it this far. We would also like to thank the many faithful fans who have traveled with us throughout the year, providing us with much needed support.

HOCKEY 1982-83

The season started off on a dismal note, but the ingenuity of the coaching staff, the hard work and determination from the players, and the locker room humor created by Sean Curtin and Robert Allen turned the season around. The battle was on between Brookline and Newton North for sole possession of first place in the Suburban League. Unfortunately, Newton edged us in overall points by two and were the league champions despite a loss and a tie to Brookline.

We ended up in second place with a 6-2-4 record which was far better than anyone expected. On behalf of all the seniors we would like to thank Coach DiVincenzo and the rest of the coaching staff for a great year.

BROOKLINE SWIMMING 1982-83

Two years ago the Brookline Swimming and Diving Team swam and dove its way to the Suburban League Championship. Now, two years later the swimmers and divers of Brookline are still champions. The team was made up of a bunch of determined and spirited guys. Although we came in second in the league, it was a strong and major improvement over last year. In the South Sectional Championship Meet we took fifth beating twenty other teams including Brockton and Catholic Memorial who we lost to earlier in the year.

As a captain and senior member of the team, I was proud to be a part of it. The swimmers, divers and coaches were great. Thanks for a spectacular season.

GIRLS' GYMNASTICS

This year the Brookline High School Girls' Gymnastic Team ended the season with a 5 and 5 record. Although we did not win the championship as teams in the past have, we improved as the season went along and came close to entering the state meet. First year coach Lisa Ferraro joined us in the middle of the season and turned a team with little experience or confidence into a team which did well and was respected throughout the league. Coach Norman Devio, as he always has, gave us support throughout the season and his sense of humor helped us more than we can say.

Hopefully, next year's team will recapture the Suburban League title.

BOYS' GYMNASTICS

BOYS' GYMNASTICS 1982-83

This year, the Boys' Gymnastic Team had it's prime moments. During the first few weeks of the season, it looked as if Brookline would be a powerhouse, capable of winning the Suburban League. However, a few gymnasts dissolved from the team, leaving but a few team members. These remaining gymnasts worked diligently to grasp three awesome victories over Brocton, Newton South, and Framingham North.

The overall team record has little to do with the many individual achievements earned. For example, the majority of the team were first year participants: Joe Weir, Chris Yoder, Jim Ross, Willy Yee, Josh Clayton-felt, and Chee Lau. Each scored respectably in many different events. We are proud of their accomplishments. They learned the hard way that gymnastics is by far, one of the most demanding sports.

The two team veterans, Victor Livingstone (Captain), and Matti Williams (Captain-elect), had excellent seasons. Matti has proved this year that he is well prepared to replace Victor as an all-around competitor next year. Victor had the best season of his high school career, scoring personal records in all six events, including: a 7.9 in the floor exercise, an 8.3 in vaulting, and a 5.7 in the parallel bars. Victor also scored a 34.5 in the all-around, which qualified him for the States — an achievement which hasn't been reached during the past four years.

Steve Gusdanian (a former B.H.S. gymnast) was an inspirational coach who did a great job pulling the rookies and veterans together. Next year, the team is looking forward to a strong bid for the Suburban League Title.

The Sagamore is Brookline High's only student-run newspaper. As has been pointed out, even though it is done entirely by students; this is no excuse. Seriously though, it welcomes submissions and suggestions from every member of the school community . . . if there is something you want to say, or something you want to see us write about, leave a note in the main office or the Sag room, A wing 320. Or you could try talking to one of the people pictured here . . . they're really . . . interesting. Sag editors are also available for parties, weddings, Bar Mitzvahs, or almost any social occasion. Just please don't try to speak to them around deadline-time.

TOWN MEETING

BROOKLINE'S DEMOCRACY AT WORK:

Now in its second year, Brookline High School's unique Town Meeting body has started slowly, but is now picking up a good head of steam. Through February Town Meeting has implemented a Rotating Chair, said that report cards may not be given out the day before a vacation, and has removed the Headmaster's vote for the Town Meeting. Rotating Chairs have included Julia Galloway, newly appointed Town Manager Cathy Colglazier, Don Thomas, and Joan Krause. One must also mention several people who have been outstanding through their unflagging dedication. Myhal and Jonathan Springer, as well as Bob Kenny, have been leading students while Cathy Colglazier has been a very active teacher. Although often frustrating and slow Town Meeting is moving forward slowly but surely. It is important to strive for true representation, and Town Meeting is working to accomplish that end.

THE DRAMA SOCIETY

We have learned a whole bunch through the years at B.H.S., that's Brookline High School, not to be confused with Brighton High School, Belmont High School, Brockton High School, Braintree High School, and all the other B.H.S.'s that have snow days when we don't. To the whole school THE DRAMA SOCIETY has been always just THE DRAMA SOCIETY. We could go rambling on and on about what THE DRAMA SOCIETY has learned, and what THE DRAMA SOCIETY has accomplished . . . in fact, we will!!

1. We have learned that THESPIAN is not a dirty word
2. We have learned that you can swindle 50¢ from just about anyone except Andrea Dukakis
3. We have learned that a democracy is doing what Iain says
4. We have learned that acting means always having an excuse for AWOLs
5. We have learned that you can write anything you want in the yearbook because no one proof reads it

We would have listed all the names involved with THE DRAMA SOCIETY, but we lost their names — they know who they are anyhow — but the people responsible for THE DRAMA SOCIETY and for losing the list of names are . . .

Jon Pauldick — President of THE DRAMA SOCIETY, part time editor, TM rep., and brain donor

Aaron Crutchfield — Vice-President, part time video junkie and human "bean"

T.J. Walsh — Assistant Treasurer, full time body guard and typist

Chuck Malacaso — Secretary, part time body builder and ambulance chaser

Laura Pauli — (Lauri Paula) Executive Representative, part time G man and housewife

Iain Ryrie — Director, part time faculty advisor, rugby coach, and Davy Jones impersonator

. . and remember, next year's dues will be doubled.

Best wishes from South America

Elliot & Howard

Just a small town girl, living in a lonely world she took the midnight train, goin' anywhere just a city boy, born and raised in South Detroit he took the midnight train, goin' anywhere . . .

A singer in a smokey room, the smell of wine and cheap perfume, for a smile they can share the night, it goes on and on and on and on . . .

Strangers, waiting, up and down the boulevard their shadows searching in the night Streetlight people, living just to find emotion hiding, somewhere in the night . . .

Working hard to get my fill, everybody wants a thrill, payin' anything to roll the dice just one more time — some will win, some will lose, some were born to sing the blues, oh the movie never ends, it goes on and on and on and on . . .

Don't stop believin' — hold onto that feeling' — Streetlight people . . .

This year the Murivian '83 staff set out to produce the best yearbook ever. Although we encountered many obstacles before we began to lay out the book — an enormous debt, a young and inexperienced staff, and a new faculty advisor — we pulled ourselves together and learned how to create an interesting yearbook in the process.

One of our primary concerns was to make the Murivian '83 for everyone. We hoped to avoid the "John Doe on every page syndrome", by including as many people as possible. Moreover, we hoped to make this yearbook an accurate reflection of B.H.S. in '83.

Best of Luck to the Class of '83.
